Paper 2 Reading Passages (Extended)

May/June 2017

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 50

---

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2017 series for most Cambridge IGCSE®, Cambridge International A and AS Level and Cambridge Pre-U components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

Note: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated. Nonetheless, the content must be clearly related to and derived from the passage.

Marking Criteria for Question 1*Table A, Reading:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Reading.

Band 1: 13–15	The response reveals a thorough reading of the passage. Developed ideas are sustained and well related to the passage. A wide range of ideas is applied. There is supporting detail throughout, which is well integrated into the response, contributing to a strong sense of purpose and approach. All three bullets are well covered. A consistent and convincing voice is used.
Band 2: 10–12	The response demonstrates a competent reading of the passage. A good range of ideas is evident. Some ideas are developed, but the ability to sustain them may not be consistent. There is frequent, helpful supporting detail, contributing to a clear sense of purpose. All three bullets are covered. An appropriate voice is used.
Band 3: 7–9	The passage has been read reasonably well. A range of straightforward ideas is offered. Opportunities for development are rarely taken. Supporting detail is present but there may be some mechanical use of the passage. There is uneven focus on the bullets. The voice is plain.
Band 4: 4–6	There is some evidence of general understanding of the main ideas, although the response may be thin or in places lack focus on the passage or the question. Some brief, straightforward reference to the passage is made. There may be some reliance on lifting from the text. One of the bullets may not be addressed. The voice might be inappropriate.
Band 5: 1–3	The response is either very general , with little reference to the passage, or a reproduction of sections of the original. Content is either insubstantial or unselective. There is little realisation of the need to modify material from the passage.
Band 6: 0	There is little or no relevance to the question or to the passage.

Table B: Writing: Structure and order, style of language Use the following table to give a mark out of 5 for Writing.

Band 1	5	The language of the response sounds convincing and consistently appropriate. Ideas are firmly expressed in a wide range of effective and/or interesting language. Structure and sequence are sound throughout.
Band 2	4	Language is mostly fluent and there is clarity of expression. There is a sufficient range of vocabulary to express ideas with subtlety and precision. The response is mainly well structured and well sequenced.
Band 3	3	Language is clear but comparatively plain and/or factual, expressing little opinion. Ideas are rarely extended, but explanations are adequate. Some sections are quite well sequenced but there may be flaws in structure.
Band 4	2	There may be some awkwardness of expression and some inconsistency of style. Language is too limited to express shades of meaning. There is structural weakness and there may be some copying from the passage.
Band 5	1	Expression and structure lack clarity. Language is weak and undeveloped. There is very little attempt to explain ideas. There may be frequent copying from the original.
Band 6	0	The response cannot be understood.

Question	Answer	Marks
2	This question tests Reading Objective R4 (10 marks): R4 demonstrate understanding of how writers achieve effects
	Re-read the descriptions of: (a) the car in paragraph 5, beginning ‘If Mama’s lime-green car ...’ (b) the atmosphere inside the car and feelings of its occupants in paragraph 20, beginning ‘At some point in the silence that followed ...’ Select four powerful words or phrases from each paragraph. Your choices should include imagery. Explain how each word or phrase selected is used effectively in the context. Write about 200 to 300 words. Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer.	10
	General notes This question is marked for the ability to select powerful or unusual words and for an understanding of ways in which the language is effective. Expect responses to provide words (listed in the mark scheme on page 9) that carry connotations additional to general meaning. Mark holistically for the overall quality of the response, not for the number of words chosen, bearing in mind that there should be a range of choices to demonstrate an understanding of how language works for the higher bands, and that this should include the ability to explain images. It is the quality of the analysis that attracts marks. Do not take marks off for inaccurate statements; simply ignore them. The following notes are a guide to what good responses might say about the selections. They can make any sensible comment, but only credit those that are relevant to the correct meanings of the words in the context and that have some validity. Alternative acceptable explanations should be credited. Credit comments on effects created by non-vocabulary choices such as grammar/syntax and punctuation devices. They must be additional to comments on vocabulary.

2(a)	the car The general effect is romanticised/comic, possibly nostalgic, memory of decrepit vehicle. Childish imagery e.g. of cartoons reflects the now adult narrator as he was at the time. lime-green: vivid, cartoon car colour, unsophisticated colour choice crumpled like an accordion: (image) fold up, concertina, suggestive of cartoon crashes, sound effect implied, offers no resistance flimsiness: fragile, easily damaged, offering little protection suggests vulnerability of occupants listed to port or starboard: (image) rocked from side to side, as if on a boat, suggests unstable / sea sickness like sitting in a bowl of custard: wobbly, humorous image, reminiscent of clown-like behaviour squealing: shrill noise suggesting outside comfort zone / scared, old worn engine, struggling, reminiscent of terrified animal, pain looked as if it belonged in the control panel of a flying saucer: looks out of place/alien as if not fit for real purpose, suggestion of their adventure into the unknown bit savagely: painful, exaggerated to suggest action of a wild beast, emphasises lack of comfort , basic upholstery/padding, possibly danger in the experience of being in this car like lying on a bed of nails: painful and dangerous, uncomfortable, circus act, connection to magicians noble beast: like a knight's charger/ lion, romanticised term, comes to their rescue in hour of need marshmallow: squidgy and soft, no strength in car, childish

Question	Answer	Marks
2(b)	The atmosphere inside the car and feelings of its occupants The general effect is of the tension provided by the contrast between the genuine and underplayed anxiety of mother as compared to the insensitive/immature reactions of the boys. black limousines: large imposing cars, sinister, authority, power  creating a funnel: their way forward is being narrowed down, increasing pressure and stress, menace  tapping the wheel: continuous small action, emphasises nervousness  on the brink: (image) as if on the edge of a precipice, about to lose control  temporarily deprived: deprived is emotive and refers to essentials, temporarily suggest may well get them back so emphasises that fuss is disproportionate  my precious possessions: suggest they may well be of little value in reality  squirt's voice providing counterpoint: (image) two voices continuous and at the same time, at different pitches, as if playing melodies in harmony with each other, unlikely though to sound pleasurable as both complaining  endured: suffered as if painful/difficult  litany of complaints: (image) a tedious recital / repetition of complaints over and over, builds annoyance, irritation, connection to a court of law  suspicious silence: not usually silent, realising something must be wrong  like a grain of sand flowing towards the neck of an hourglass: (image) slow but inevitable progress, time is running out, serious consequences ahead for them

Marking Criteria for Question 2

Table A, Reading: Language analysis:

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

Band 1	9–10	Wide ranging and closely focused discussion of language with some high quality comments that add associations to words in both parts of the question, and demonstrate the writer's reasons for using them. Tackles imagery with some precision and imagination. There is clear evidence that the candidate understands how language works.
Band 2	7–8	Explanations are given of appropriately selected words and phrases, and effects are identified in both parts of the question. Images are recognised as such and the response goes some way to explaining them. There is some evidence that the candidate understands how language works.
Band 3	5–6	A satisfactory attempt is made to identify appropriate words and phrases. The response mostly gives meanings of words and any attempt to suggest and explain effects is basic, vague or very general. One half of the question may be better answered than the other.
Band 4	3–4	The response provides a mixture of appropriate choices and words that communicate less well. The response may correctly identify linguistic or literary devices but not explain why they are used. Explanations of meaning may be few, general, slight or only partially effective. They may repeat the language of the original or do not refer to specific words.
Band 5	1–2	The choice of words is insufficient or rarely relevant. Any comments are inappropriate and the response is very thin.
Band 6	0	The response does not relate to the question. Inappropriate words and phrases are chosen or none are selected.

Where errors of grammar / spelling seriously affect the accuracy of an idea, the point should not be awarded.

Marking criteria for Question 3(b)*Quality of Writing: concision, focus, use of own words

Use the following table to give a mark out of 5 for Writing.

Band 1	5	The response is well focused on the passage and the question. All points are expressed clearly, concisely and fluently, and in the candidate's own words (where appropriate) throughout.
Band 2	4	The summary is mostly focused but may have a redundant introduction or conclusion. Most points are made clearly and concisely. Own words (where appropriate) are used consistently.
Band 3	3	There may be occasional loss of focus or clarity. There are some areas of concision. Own words (where appropriate) are used for most of the summary. Responses may be list-like or not well sequenced.
Band 4	2	The summary is sometimes focused. It may lack some clarity. It may include comment, repetition, unnecessarily long explanation or lifted phrases.
Band 5	1	The summary is unfocused or wordy. It may be answered in the wrong form (e.g. narrative, commentary or as notes) or lack clarity. There may be frequent lifting of phrases and sentences.
Band 6	0	Excessive lifting; no focus. The response cannot be understood or consists entirely of the words of the passage.
