Paper 2 Reading Passages (Extended)

May/June 2019

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 50

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2019 series for most Cambridge IGCSE™, Cambridge International A and AS Level and Cambridge Pre-U components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

This document consists of 14 printed pages.

Generic Marking Principles

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptors for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

Marks must be awarded in line with:

- the specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question
- the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question
- the standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

Marks awarded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

Marks must be awarded positively:

- marks are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate
- marks are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do
- marks are not deducted for errors
- marks are not deducted for omissions
- answers should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed by the question as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

Rules must be applied consistently e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

Marks should be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark range may be limited according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

Marks awarded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade thresholds or grade descriptors in mind.

Note: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated. Nonetheless, the content must be clearly related to and derived from the passage.

Band 6: 13–15	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The response reveals a thorough reading of the passage. • Developed ideas are sustained and well related to the passage. • A wide range of ideas is applied. • There is supporting detail throughout, which is well integrated into the response, contributing to a strong sense of purpose and approach. • All three bullets are well covered. • A consistent and convincing voice is used.
Band 5: 10–12	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The response demonstrates a competent reading of the passage. • A good range of ideas is evident. • Some ideas are developed, but the ability to sustain them may not be consistent. • There is frequent, helpful supporting detail, contributing to a clear sense of purpose. • All three bullets are covered. • An appropriate voice is used.

Question 2

This question tests Reading Objective R4 (10 marks):

R4 demonstrate understanding of how writers achieve effects

Question	Answer	Marks
2	Re-read the descriptions of: (a) Wusani and her experience at Bush Camp in paragraph 2, beginning ‘Setting up meant ...’ (b) Peter’s journey to the Bush Camp in paragraph 9, beginning ‘After struggling ...’ Select four powerful words or phrases from each paragraph. Your choices should include imagery. Explain how each word or phrase is used effectively in the context. Write about 200 to 300 words. Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer.	10
	Notes on task This question is marked for understanding of ways in which the language used is effective. Relevant selections from each paragraph are listed on page 11. The notes on page 11 are a guide to what good responses might say about the selections, along with possible overviews which may be offered for each paragraph. Alternative acceptable explanations should be credited. Candidates can make any sensible comment, but only credit those that are relevant to the correct meanings of the words in the context. Credit comments on effects created by non-vocabulary choices such as grammar/syntax and punctuation devices. These must be additional to comments on vocabulary. Mark holistically for the overall quality of the response, not for the number of words chosen for discussion, bearing in mind that there should be a range of choices to demonstrate an understanding of how language works for the higher bands, and that this should include the ability to explain images.

2(a)	Wusani and her experience at Bush Camp in paragraph 2 The general effect is cartoon-like, with a stereotypical figure and exaggerated comic actions. This creates humour at Wusani's expense. decrepit, spluttering truck: (image) intermittent engine sounds of the aged truck, expressing outrage at being expected to carry heavy load and Wusani on top of that bulk: mass of something large, difficult and heavy to move made the ageing truck's suspension creak ominously: sound suggests the old vehicle about to break under Wusani's weight, sense of foreboding particularly disliked: specifically something she did not like, understated emotion suggests actually was far worse than that and her feelings were demonstrated loudly unpleasantly surprised: had suddenly heard the lion, actually likely to have been more shocked and scared, understated to suggest the reaction was in fact extreme any less terrifying: even though she was unlikely to be in real danger Wusani was extremely scared, contrast with disliked and surprised to suggest in his view her reaction was disproportionate and extreme improbably perched: (image) she is stuck up the tree on a very thin branch, has gone to the highest / furthest branch she could, precarious, ridiculous picture comparing her unfavourably to a bird adrenaline had fuelled the climb: (image) her fear had given her the energy to climb higher / faster than she would have otherwise been able to do, burst of energy like a rocket gravity's pull resolved the issue: she fell down from the tree, humour as it implies rather than describes the event saved from serious harm: she was not badly injured, received only minor injuries as a result of the fall, never in any real danger
2(b)	Peter's journey to the Bush Camp in paragraph 9 The general effect is Peter looking back with the benefit of hindsight on his youthful over-confidence, irritation with the task and resistance to working too hard. struggling some way: physically hard work pushing the heavy wheelbarrow, has difficulty making any significant progress slogging through soft sand: working (too) hard as terrain is difficult, diligently working (without reward), sinking in as he tries to move forwards branches met overhead, offering cool shade: trees form a high canopy sheltering him from the sun, tempting him to rest sense of peace mingled with the undercurrent of excitement: (image) mixture of quiet calm and adrenaline of adventure, relaxing, fluid mix of emotions rather than stark contrast, anticipation of events long drawn out hag-like rasp: (image) harsh grating noise, ugly, extended, lasting longer than necessary, villainous, noise of a wicked creature irritatingly insistent: annoying, causing discomfort, will not stop or give up, feels it is a distraction

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

Band 6: 9–10	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wide ranging discussion of judiciously selected language with some high quality comments that add meaning and associations to words/phrases in both parts of the question, and demonstrate the writer's reasons for using them. • Tackles imagery with some precision and imagination. • There is clear evidence that the candidate understands how language works.
Band 5: 7–8	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explanations are given of carefully selected words and phrases. • Explanations of meanings within the context of the passage are secure and effects are identified in both parts of the question. • Images are recognised as such and the response goes some way to explaining them. • There is some evidence that the candidate understands how language works.
Band 4: 5–6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A satisfactory attempt is made to select appropriate words and phrases. • The response mostly gives meanings of words and any attempt to suggest and explain effects is basic or very general. • One half of the question may be better answered than the other.
Band 3: 3–4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The response provides a mixture of appropriate choices and words that communicate less well. • The response may correctly identify linguistic devices but not explain why they are used. • Explanations may be few, general, slight or only partially effective. • They may repeat the language of the original or do not refer to specific words.
Band 2: 1–2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The choice of words is sparse or rarely relevant. • Any comments are inappropriate and the response is very thin.
Band 1: 0	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The response does not relate to the question. • Inappropriate words and phrases are chosen or none are selected.

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Reading.

Band 5 13–15	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A very effective response that demonstrates a thorough understanding of the requirements of the task. • Demonstrates understanding of a wide range of relevant ideas and is consistently well-focused. • Points are skilfully selected to demonstrate an overview.

Band 0 0	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No creditable content.

Notes

- Overview demonstrates a candidate's ability to summarise carefully selected key points in relation to the focus of the question rather than to paraphrase the passage. Candidates should give a focused response, drawing ideas from the passage provided; they should demonstrate clear understanding of both explicit and implicit meanings.
