The number of marks is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.

This document consists of 11 printed pages, 1 blank page and 1 Insert.

1 You are Tom Vincent advising recent newcomers to Calumet Camp.

For
Examiner's
Use

Write the words of your talk to the newcomers.

In your talk you should:

- tell the newcomers about your recent hazardous walk
- explain the skills and knowledge needed to survive in this environment
- share what you learned about yourself from this experience.

Base your talk on what you have read in Passage A. Address all three bullet points. Be careful to use your own words.

Begin your talk: 'My name is Tom Vincent and I have something important to tell you!'

Write between 1½ and 2 sides, allowing for the size of your handwriting.

Up to 15 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 5 marks for the quality of your writing.

[illegible]

[Turn over for Question 2]

2 Re-read the descriptions of:

- (a) the intense cold in paragraph 3, beginning 'He had set off...';
- (b) the lighting of the fire in paragraph 5, beginning 'It is impossible...'.

Select words and phrases from these descriptions, and explain how the writer has created effects by using this language.

Write between 1 and 1½ sides, allowing for the size of your handwriting.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer.

3 Summarise:

For
Examiner's
Use

(a) the hardships of the living conditions, as described in Passage B;

(b) the dangers of walking in Alaska, as described in Passage A.

Your summary must be in continuous writing (full sentences; not note form). Use your own words as far as possible.

Aim to write no more than one side in total, allowing for the size of your handwriting. Write your response on the lines provided on page 9.

Up to 15 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 5 marks for the quality of your writing.
