for the guidance of teachers

0500 FIRST LANGUAGE ENGLISH

0500/32

Paper 3 (Directed Writing and Composition), maximum raw mark 50

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes must be read in conjunction with the question papers and the report on the examination.

- Cambridge will not enter into discussions or correspondence in connection with these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2011 question papers for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level syllabuses and some Ordinary Level syllabuses.

	IGCSE – October/November 2011	0500	32

Note: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated. Nonetheless, the content must be clearly related to and derived from the passage.

Section 1: Directed Writing

Question 1

This question tests Writing Objectives W1-W5 (15 marks):

- articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagined
- order and present facts, ideas and opinions
- understand and use a range of appropriate vocabulary
- use language and register appropriate to audience and context
- make accurate and effective use of paragraphs, grammatical structures, sentences, punctuation and spelling.

AND aspects of Reading Objectives R1-R3 (10 marks):

- select, analyse and evaluate what is relevant to specific purposes.

Imagine that your aunt and uncle are considering educating your cousin, a spoilt only child, at home and have asked for your opinions. Write a letter to them in which you should explain:

- the advantages of being home schooled
- the reasons why home-schooling may not be advisable
- why you would or would not recommend home-schooling for your cousin.

Base your letter on the fact file and the magazine article. Be careful to use your own words.

You should write between 1½ and 2 sides, allowing for the size of your handwriting.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 15 marks for the quality of your writing. [25]

Responses may use the following:

A Advantages of being home schooled

- Enjoyable.
- Active.
- Can follow own interests.
- Avoids boredom.
- Existence of a support service.
- Allows more time for work experience.
- Statistics suggest home-schooled students are higher academic achievers.

Points for this particular child:

- The child could choose which subjects to focus on.
- The child would get individual attention which would encourage him/her to work.
- The child would not have to do anything he/she did not want to do.

B Reasons why home-schooling may not be advisable

- No GCSEs or A-level qualifications; difficult and expensive if not attached to a school.
- Some universities do not accept home-schooled applicants.
- Requires self-discipline; no deadlines, homework, exams or timetable.
- Some children may watch too much television.
- Cost of private tutors.
- Can lead to isolation; requires proactive socializing.
- Socio-economic factors crucial to outcome.
- Still only a tiny proportion of students are home schooled.

Points for this particular child:

- The child may not have the necessary self-discipline or ability to meet deadlines.
- The child might need to have a strict schedule in order to produce work.
- The child might need the competition of other students to make them want to achieve.
- The child might already spend too much time at home being indulged.

C Recommendation for this spoilt child

Yes, home-schooling is recommended/No, home-schooling is not recommended because:

- S/he can choose own teachers.
- Doesn't have to do irrelevant subjects.
- Will need to develop independent research skills.
- Needs to be mature and self-motivated.
- Firm but flexible parental support necessary.
- Innate intelligence may be a crucial factor.
- Not all parents can act as effective teachers.
- The child may need the regular company of other children.

The discriminator is the evaluation of the arguments, which requires candidates to draw inferences and make judgments about whether the advantages outweigh the disadvantages in this particular case. Perceptive responses may note that the writer is exceptionally able and from a privileged home, and that therefore this experience may not be typical, and that since the cousin is 'spoilt', i.e. over-indulged already, this should affect the decision. Ideas and opinions must remain connected to the passage, while developing its claims and assessing their implications with clear and persuasive arguments.

This question is marked out of 10 for Reading and 15 for Writing.

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

Band 1	9–10	Gives a thorough, perceptive, convincing response. Reads effectively between the lines. Develops the reading material and integrates it into the response to the task.
Band 2	7–8	Some evidence of evaluation of the passage, engaging with a few of the main points with success. Uses reading material to support the argument. Occasionally effective development of some of the ideas in the material.
Band 3	5–6	Reproduces a number of points to make a satisfactory response. The response covers the material satisfactorily, but may miss opportunities to develop it relevantly or at length.
Band 4	3–4	Selects points from the passage rather literally and/or uses material thinly. Does not combine points into a connected response.
Band 5	1–2	Parts of the response are relevant, though material may be repeated or used inappropriately.
Band 6	0	Response does not relate to question and/or too much unselective copying directly from the material to gain a mark in Band 5.

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Writing.

Band 1	13–15	Consistent sense of audience; persuasive/authoritative style; fit for purpose. Fluent, varied sentences/wide range of vocabulary. Strong sense of structure, paragraphing and sequence. Virtually no error.
Band 2	10–12	Sense of audience mostly secure; quite stylish and quite fluent; sense of overall structure; mostly well-sequenced; arguments occasionally well developed. Writing is mainly accurate, sentences and language effective.
Band 3	8–9	Occasional sense of audience; mostly written in accurate, if fairly straightforward sentences; some argument though not strong; mostly quite well structured; errors minor; vocabulary may be plain but adequate for the task.
Band 4	5–7	Appropriate if sometimes inconsistent style; sentences mainly accurate; more fact than argument; basic structure; fairly frequent, minor errors; perhaps including sentence separation; sentences and/or vocabulary simple.
Band 5	3–4	Functional expression; largely factual with little/no argument; has a beginning, but main part of response not always well sequenced; some serious errors in grammar/punctuation/use of vocabulary.
Band 6	1–2	Language and style not clear; some meanings imprecise and lacking in order; despite some serious errors, gist can mainly be followed. Faulty sentence construction.
Band 7	0	Serious inaccuracies and problems with language and grammar are too intrusive to gain a mark in Band 6.
