A Raisin in the Sun – Lorraine Hansberry

EITHER

- 13 'One message of the play seems to be that being passionate about wanting to change one's life or change the world is not enough: one must also take action to make the change occur.'

In the light of this statement, explore the idea that Hansberry's play rewards those who take action rather than those who only dream.

In your answer, you must consider relevant contextual factors.

(Total for Question 13 = 25 marks)

OR

- 14 'Walter is at once a character in a very specific time, place and situation, and an Everyman figure who embodies something that is at the core of all human beings.'

In the light of this statement, explore the way in which Hansberry uses the character of Walter in A Raisin in the Sun.

In your answer, you must consider relevant contextual factors.
