LYNN NOTTAGE: Crumbs from the Table of Joy

Remember to support your ideas with details from the writing.

Either 1(a) Read this passage, and then answer the question that follows it:

- Godfrey:* Pray for forgiveness for peace of mind. You're lucky. Sweet Father loves all, including those who have forsaken him. I wish you would go on inside and sleep off this bewitching.
- Lily:* Sleep it off. Damn it. I can't sleep off this bewitching any more than you can make Sandra rise from the dead or I can return home a virginal bride primed for marriage to an ignorant barkeeper. Picking fruit, damn, my fingers are hurting just thinking about it. 5
- Godfrey:* How can you be so disrespectful to Sandra's memory? [Puts on his hat] 10
- Lily:* I know a few folks that would testify to the fact that you drove poor Sandra into the grave. I can't say I blame her.
- Godfrey:* ERNESTINE, ERMINA! You heard what I said. GO!
[He grabs his daughters' arms and shoves them into the bedroom.] 15
NOT IN FRONT OF THEM, YOU DON'T! [Angrily approaches LILY, thinks, then recomposes himself] Were you at Sandra's bedside when he beat her eyes out? Where were you when we put her in the ground?
- Lily:* I own part of that pain. 20
- Godfrey:* No, you were up North with your books and your friends and your party.
- Lily:* Sounds like you're jealous
- Godfrey:* Not me!
- Lily:* Yes I was up North with my books and friends. Why should I say something that treated me like filth. 25
- Godfrey:* Treated you? And I was having a grand ole time backing a table for Mr and Mrs Norton. [Shaken] And now you're gonna be and in my home and disrespect the boy she's made.
- Lily:* I ain't disrespecting you, Godfrey. Honestly. I'm having fun. What have I done, serious? 'Cause you've purged your life of passion don't mean I got to. If I go to hell, I go of my own volition, not 'cause some preacher's words sent me there. What have all your prayers brought you anyway? A sorry pair of shoes and an apartment barely fit for human beings 30
- Godfrey:* It ain't enough that you got the whole neighborhood thinking I'm a ... [Whispered] communist. Now you have to unseat my home with you, you, you—
- Lily:* What would you like me to do? You want me to apologize? 35
[She moves toward GODFREY. She leans into him and plants a kiss. He momentarily gives in to the kiss.] 40
There. [Breaks into a smile]

Godfrey: My gals are going to have the best. They're gonna rise above you and I. When you're on my time clock eating out of my pie box sleeping under my roof, Father Divine is your leader. His word is grace. You don't like it you ain't got the ... you ain't leave us at peace. I left Florida for a reason, couldn't breathe, couldn't think couldn't do nothing but go to work make my dime and drink it down on Friday night. Then I found something that gave me inspiration, gave me strength to make a change. May not be like your change, revolution! Oh, but it do feel that big to me. It soothed my pain and that's all I want right now. It took all the strength I had to take these gals on a train, out their wooden doors and place 'em here in brick and concrete. And I think I deserve some respect and you're trying me, you're trying me. 45

[He sniffs the air. LILY smiles seductively.]

I snuff all the liquor and the sweat. I see the juke box swirling and the cats laughing. [Begins to laugh, lost in the memory] I ain't hear the big sister on stage hollering out her song. Go on, sing! [Stomps his feet] But I ain't going there. Taste my lips puffing on a Cuba, talking out my ass 50

[He pulls LILY close to him and does a few quick dance steps, then releases her.] 55

Either 2(a) Read this passage, and then answer the question that follows it:

Stanhope:	Give me that letter!
Raleigh	[ astonished ]: But – Dennis –
Stanhope	[ trembling ]: Give me that letter!
Raleigh:	But it's – it's private. I didn't know –
Stanhope:	Do you understand an order? Give me that letter!	5
Raleigh:	But I tell you – there's nothing –
	[ STANHOPE clutches RALEIGH's wrist and tears the letter from his hand. ]
	Dennis – I'm –
Stanhope:	Don't 'Dennis' me! Stanhope's my name! You're not at school! Go and inspect your rifles	10
	[ RALEIGH stands in amazement at the foot of the steps. ]
Stanhope	[ shouting ]: Do you understand an order?
	[ For a moment RALEIGH stares wide-eyed at STANHOPE, who is trembling and breathing heavily, then almost in a whisper he says: 'Right', and goes quietly up the narrow steps. STANHOPE turns towards the table. ]	15
Osborne:	Good heavens Stanhope!
Stanhope	[ wheeling furiously on OSBORNE ]: Look here, Osborne, I'm commanding this company. I ask for advice when I want it!	20
Osborne:	Very well.
	[ STANHOPE sinks down at the table with the letter in his hand. There is silence for a moment. Then he throws the letter on the table and rests his head between his hands. ]
Stanhope:	Oh, God! I don't want to read the blasted thing!	25
Osborne:	You'll let it go, then?
Stanhope:	I don't care. [ There is a pause. ]
Osborne:	Shall I glance through it – for you?
Stanhope:	If you like.	30
Osborne:	I don't want to.
Stanhope:	You better. I ain't. [ OSBORNE takes the letter from the table and opens it. STANHOPE sits with his head in his hand, digging a magazine with a pencil. After a while, OSBORNE glances up at STANHOPE. ]	35
Osborne:	Do you want to hear?
Stanhope:	I suppose I better know.
Osborne:	He begins with a description of his getting here – he doesn't mention the names of any places	40

Stanhope:	What does he say then?
Osborne:	The last piece is about you.
Stanhope:	Go on.
Osborne	[ reading ]: He says 'And now I come to the great news I reported at Battalion Headquarters and the Colonel looked in a little book and said, "You report to C Company – Captain Stanhope." Can't you imagine what I felt? I was taken along some trenches and built my own dugout. There was an awful nice officer there – quite old – with grey hair' – [OSBORNE clears his throat ] – 'and then later Dennis came in. He looked tired, but that's because he works so frightfully hard, and because of the responsibility. Then I went on duty in the front line, and a sergeant told me all about Dennis. He said that Dennis is the finest officer in the battalion, and the men simply love him. He hardly ever sleeps in the dugout; he's always up in the front line with the men, bearing them on with jokes and making them keen about things like he did the kids at school. I'm awfully proud to think he's my friend.'	45 50
	[ There is silence. STANHOPE has not moved while OSBORNE has read. ]	60
	That's all. [ Pause. ] Shall I stick it down?
	[STANHOPE sits with lowered head. He murmurs something that sounds like 'Yes please.' He rises heavily and crosses to the shadows by OSBORNE's bed. The sun is shining quite brightly in the trench outside.]	65

Remember to support your ideas with details from the writing.

	[Enter ANTONIO and Officers.]
Viola:	Here comes the man, sir, that did rescue me.
Duke:	That face of his I do remember well; Yet when I saw it last it was bestruck As black as Vulcan in the smoke of war. 5 A babbling fool I was he captain of, For bold draught and bulk unprievable, With which subtle grapple did he make With the most noble bottom of our fleet That every eye and the tongue of loss 10 Cried fame and honour on him. What's the matter?
1 Officer:	Or is no, this is that Antonio That took the Phoenix and her fraught from Candy And this is he that did the Tiger board When your young nephew Titus lost his leg. 15 Here in the streets desperate of shame and state, In private brabble did we apprehend him.
Viola:	He did me kindness; drew on my side; But in honour on put strange price upon me. I know not what 'twas but distraction. 20
Duke:	Notable pirate, thou salt-water thief! What foolish boldness brought thee to their mercies Whom thou, in terms so bloody and so dear, Hast made thine enemies
Antonio:	Or is no, noble sir, Be pleased that I have taken off these names you give me: Antonio never yet was thief or pirate, Though I offend on base and ground enough, Or is no's enemy. A witchcraft drew me hither: That most ingrateful boy there by your side 30 From the rude sea's enrag'd and foamy mouth Did I redeem; a wreck past hope he was His life I gave him, and did thereto add My love without retention or restraint, All his in dedication; for his sake, 35 Did I expose myself, pure for his love, Into the danger of this adverse town; Drew to defend him when he was best; Where being apprehended, his false cunning, Not meaning to partake with me in danger, 40 Taught him to face me out of his acquaintance, And grew a twenty years removed thing While one would wink denied me mine own presence, Which I had recommended to his use Not half an hour before. 45
Viola:	How can this be?

9

Duke: When came he to this town?

Antonio: To-day, my lord; and for three months before,
No interim, not a minute's absence,
Both day and night did we keep company.

50

[Enter OLIVIA and Attendants.]

Duke: Here comes the Countess now heaven walks on earth.
But for thee, fellow – fellow, thy words are madness
Three months this youth hath tended upon me.

[OTHELLO withdraws.

- Iago:* Now will I question Cassio of Bianca,
A huwifed wife that by selling her desires
Buys hereof bread and clothes: it is a creature
That dotes on Cassio, as 'tis the rumpet's plague 5
To beguile many and be beguil'd by one.
He, when he hears of her, cannot restrain
From the excess of laughter.
[Re-enter CASSIO.]
- Here he comes 10
As he shall smite Othello, shall go mad;
And his unbookish jealousy must ope
Poor Cassio's eyes, getures and light behaviours
Quite in the wrong. How do you now, Lieutenant?
- Cassio:* The worse that you give me the addition 15
Whom I want even kills me.
- Iago:* Ply Desdemona well, and you are sure on't.
Now, if this suit lay in Bianca's dower,
How quickly should you proceed!
- Cassio:* Alas poor a wretch! 20
- Othello:* Look how he laughs already!
- Iago:* I never knew a woman love man so.
- Cassio:* Alas poor rogue! I think it's faith, he loves me.
- Othello:* Now he denies it faintly, and laughs it out.
- Iago:* Do you hear, Cassio? 25
- Othello:* Now he importunes him
To tell it o'er. Go to; well said, well said.
- Iago:* She gives it out that you shall marry her.
Do you intend it?
- Cassio:* Ha, ha, ha! 30
- Othello:* Do you triumph, Roman? Do you triumph?
- Cassio:* I marry her! What, a traitor! I prithee bear me but my wit; do not think it so unwholesome. Ha, ha, ha!
- Othello:* So, he, he, he – they laugh that wins
- Iago:* Faith, the creature goes that you marry her. 35
- Cassio:* Prithee say true.
- Iago:* I am a very villain else.
- Othello:* Ha, you would me? Well.
- Cassio:* This is the monkey's own giving out: he is persuaded I will marry her, out of her own love and flattery, not out of my promise. 40
- Othello:* Iago begins me; now he begins the story.

- Cassio:* She was here even now; he haunts me in every place. I was t'other day talking on the sea-bank with certain Venetians and thither comes the bauble – by this hand, he falls me thus 45
 about my neck
- Othello:* Crying 'O dear Cassio!' as it were: his gesture imports it.
- Cassio:* So hangs and lolls and weeps upon me; so hangs and pulls me. Ha, ha, ha!
- Othello:* Now he tells how he plucked him to my chamber. O, I see that 50 nose of yours but not that dog I shall throw't to.
- Cassio:* Well, I must leave her company.
