

GCSE MARKING SCHEME

SUMMER 2018

ENGLISH LITERATURE COMPONENT 1
C720U10-1

INTRODUCTION

This marking scheme was used by WJEC for the 2018 examination. It was finalised after detailed discussion at examiners' conferences by all the examiners involved in the assessment. The conference was held shortly after the paper was taken so that reference could be made to the full range of candidates' responses, with photocopied scripts forming the basis of discussion. The aim of the conference was to ensure that the marking scheme was interpreted and applied in the same way by all examiners.

It is hoped that this information will be of assistance to centres but it is recognised at the same time that, without the benefit of participation in the examiners' conference, teachers may have different views on certain matters of detail or interpretation.

WJEC regrets that it cannot enter into any discussion or correspondence about this marking scheme.

7 2

Choose one other poem from the anthology in which the poet also writes about war.

Compare the way the poet presents war in your chosen poem with the way Owen Sheers presents war in Mametz Wood. [25]

In your answer to 7 2 you should compare:

- the content and structure of the poems – what they are about and how they are organised
- how the writers create effects, using appropriate terminology where relevant
- the contexts of the poems, and how these may have influenced ideas in them

Indicative content

For the second poem, candidates may choose any other appropriate poem from the anthology that explores the presentation of war. For example, if candidates choose Dulce et Decorum Est, then responses may include:

AO1 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How both poems deal with the theme of war • An understanding of how Wilfred Owen is trying to show the futility and waste of war in Dulce et Decorum Est and how this compares with the view of war in Mametz Wood • The inability to escape the horrors of war in Dulce et Decorum Est with the nightmarish dreams and how this compares/contrasts with the resurfacing of past suffering in Mametz Wood • The ending to Dulce et Decorum Est with the use of direct address and how this compares to the more positive ending to Mametz Wood
AO2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How Wilfred Owen uses language to achieve specific effects and how this compares to Owen Sheers' use of language in Mametz Wood • The effect of the narrative viewpoint in both poems and the effect of this • The graphic and horrific images in Dulce et Decorum Est e.g. 'like a devil sick of sin', 'froth corrupted lungs' with the nature based images of Mametz Wood e.g. 'broken bird's egg of a skull'
AO3 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An understanding of the contexts of Dulce et Decorum Est and the contexts of Mametz Wood • Comments on the attitudes to war suggested in Dulce et Decorum Est and in Mametz Wood • A comparison of the contextual factors affecting Mametz Wood and Dulce et Decorum Est, e.g. the place of propaganda and how the poems were received by their readers at the time
