

GCSE MARKING SCHEME

SUMMER 2019

ENGLISH LITERATURE - UNIT 1
FOUNDATION TIER
3720U10-1

INTRODUCTION

This marking scheme was used by WJEC for the 2019 examination. It was finalised after detailed discussion at examiners' conferences by all the examiners involved in the assessment. The conference was held shortly after the paper was taken so that reference could be made to the full range of candidates' responses, with photocopied scripts forming the basis of discussion. The aim of the conference was to ensure that the marking scheme was interpreted and applied in the same way by all examiners.

It is hoped that this information will be of assistance to centres but it is recognised at the same time that, without the benefit of participation in the examiners' conference, teachers may have different views on certain matters of detail or interpretation.

WJEC regrets that it cannot enter into any discussion or correspondence about this marking scheme.

UNIT 1 – FOUNDATION TIER

UNIT 1: BAND CRITERIA

The following descriptions have been provided to indicate the way in which progression within the four criteria is likely to occur. Each successive description assumes demonstration of achievements in lower bands. You are asked to place work initially within a band and then to fine-tune using the marks within the band. It is recognised that work will not always fit neatly into one of the descriptions.

(extract)	(essay) (poetry)	Critical response to texts (AO1) *Assessed in all questions	Language, structure and form (AO2) *Assessed in Section A (extract) and Section B (poetry)	Making comparisons (AO3) *Assessed in Section B (poetry)	Social, cultural, and historical contexts (AO4) *Assessed in Section A (essay)
0	0	Nothing written, or what is written is irrelevant to the text or not worthy of credit.
1	1-4	Very brief with hardly any relevant detail. Errors in grammar, punctuation and spelling are likely to impede communication on occasions. Structure and organisation is limited and meaning is often unclear.
2-4	5-9	Candidates: rely on a narrative approach with some misreadings; make a personal response to the text.	Candidates: may make generalised comments about stylistic effects.	Candidates: begin to make simple points of comparison when required; give simple unfocused expression of preference.	Candidates: make simple comments on textual background.
Grammar, punctuation and spelling has some errors. There is some attempt to structure and organise writing and meaning is clear in places.
5-7	10-14	Candidates: display some understanding of main features; make generalised reference to relevant aspects of the text, echoing and paraphrasing; begin to select relevant detail.	Candidates: recognise and make simple comments on particular features of style and structure.	Candidates: make straightforward connections between texts; select some obvious features of similarity and difference; begin to make comments on some of the different ways writers express meaning.	Candidates: show a limited awareness of social/cultural and historical contexts; begin to be aware how social/cultural and historical context is relevant to understanding the text(s).
Grammar, punctuation and spelling is generally good but with occasional errors. Structure and organisation is secure and meaning is generally clear.
8-10	15-20	Candidates: make more detailed reference to text; discuss thoroughly, and increasingly thoughtfully, characters and relationships; probe the sub-text with increasing confidence; select and evaluate relevant textual details; understand and demonstrate how writers use ideas, themes and settings to affect the reader; convey ideas clearly and appropriately.	Candidates: see how different aspects of style and structure combine to create effects; show increasingly clear appreciation of how meanings and ideas are conveyed through language, structure and form.	Candidates: compare and make some evaluation of subject, theme, character and may comment on how writers achieve different effects; begin to explore comparisons of theme and style and different ways writers express meaning; explain the relevance and impact of connections and comparisons between texts.	Candidates: set texts in contexts more securely; begin to see how texts have been influential; have a clear grasp of social/cultural and historical context; begin to relate texts to own and others' experience.
Grammar, punctuation and spelling is largely accurate. Structure and organisation is accomplished and meaning is clear.

SECTION B

Both poets write about the weather in winter.

6	1

Remembering Snow by Brian Patten / A Winter Night by Sara Teasdale

Write about both poems and their effect on you. Show how they are similar and how they are different.

You may write about each poem separately and then compare them, or make comparisons where appropriate in your answer as a whole.

You may wish to include some or all of these points:

- the content of the poems – what they are about
- the ideas the poets may have wanted us to think about
- the mood or atmosphere of the poems
- how they are written – words and phrases you find interesting, the way they are organised, and so on
- your responses to the poems, including how they are similar and how they are different

[20]

This question covers assessment objectives AO1 (25%), AO2 (25%) and AO3 (50%)

0 marks	Nothing worthy of credit.
1-4 marks	There may be very little written specifically about the poems. Candidates may make simple comments on content, such as identifying the weather in each poem.
5-9 marks	Probably brief, general responses on the poems with simple points of comparison made, such as the way the weather is described. There should be some comment on basic content, such as what is happening in each poem.
10-14 marks	There may be emerging discussion about the poems' content and awareness of mood, atmosphere and straightforward ideas, such as the poets' use of description which shows wonder and admiration for the snow in the first and the anxiety about the effect the cold will be having on others in the second. There will be some similarities and differences addressed, particularly about the general impressions given of each winter scene.
15-20 marks	There is likely to be more focused discussion of the detail in the poems with some clear points of comparison. The use of description to convey the transforming effect of the snow in the first poem and interesting images to describe the freezing night in the second poem may be considered, with some selection and highlighting of specific details which create the mood and atmosphere. In the second poem, there may be some appreciation of the effects the night may be having on others and the way this contrasts with the central character's 'bit of June'. Candidates are likely to write about the contrasting emotional effects the winter's scene has on both poets. For 18-20, candidates may show some appreciation of how ideas are conveyed through the poets' choice of language and imagery, for example some explanation of specific similes in the second poem and the kind of details about the street scene included in the first. Points of comparison will begin to focus on the poets' use of language as well as content.

Please note that the Higher Tier poems are entitled Ending and How We Live. If a candidate has answered on these poems please use the 'wrong question' tool on e-marker. Refer to the e-marker training material for more information.
