GCSE MARKING SCHEME

---

SUMMER 2018

GCSE (NEW)
ENGLISH LITERATURE UNIT 2B
HIGHER TIER
3720UC0-1

INTRODUCTION

This marking scheme was used by WJEC for the 2018 examination. It was finalised after detailed discussion at examiners' conferences by all the examiners involved in the assessment. The conference was held shortly after the paper was taken so that reference could be made to the full range of candidates' responses, with photocopied scripts forming the basis of discussion. The aim of the conference was to ensure that the marking scheme was interpreted and applied in the same way by all examiners.

It is hoped that this information will be of assistance to centres but it is recognised at the same time that, without the benefit of participation in the examiners' conference, teachers may have different views on certain matters of detail or interpretation.

WJEC regrets that it cannot enter into any discussion or correspondence about this marking scheme.

Unit 2B BAND CRITERIA (Contemporary drama and literary heritage prose)

The following descriptions have been provided to indicate the way in which progression within the three criteria is likely to occur. Each successive description assumes demonstration of achievements in lower bands. You are asked to place work initially within a band and then to fine-tune using the marks within the band. It is recognised that work will not always fit neatly into one of the descriptions.

Section A (Contemporary Drama)

The History Boys

1	1
---	---

Read the extract on the opposite page. Then answer the following question:

Look closely at how the Headmaster and Mrs Lintott speak and behave here. How does it create mood and atmosphere for an audience? [10]

This question covers assessment objectives A01 (50%) and A02 (50%).

- 0 marks Nothing written, or nothing worthy of credit.
- 1 mark Answers will be simple and general.
- 2-4 marks Answers will rely on simple retelling, with some emerging discussion and awareness of what is going on in the extract, at 3, and, perhaps, empathy too, at 4.
- 5-7 marks Answers will be more focused with apt discussion of selected detail. At 7, answers will be thoughtful and thorough in their discussion of the Headmaster and Mrs Lintott and the situation.
- 8-10 marks Discussion of the extract will be sensitive, assured and evaluative, and, at the top may well appreciate its significance, through the exchanges between the Headmaster and Mrs Lintott.

1	2
---	---

How is the character of Dakin presented to an audience in The History Boys? Refer closely to the text in your answer. [20]

This question covers assessment objectives A01 (33%) and A02 (67%).

- 0 marks Nothing written, or nothing worthy of credit.
- 1-4 marks Answers will be underdeveloped, and based on simple, patchy narrative.
- 5-9 marks Answers will be based on fairly simple, and probably patchy, narrative, with some discussion and awareness of Dakin as he appears in the play for 8/9.
- 10-14 marks Answers will be more focused, with a detailed discussion of Dakin as he appears in the play. For 13–14, responses will be sustained and thoughtful, although the issue of presentation may still be dealt with only implicitly.
- 15-20 marks Answers will be increasingly evaluative and assured, with a confident and well supported discussion of Dakin as he is presented across the play. At the top of this mark range there is also likely to be direct and analytical attention paid to the idea of how he is presented

Please look for, and reward, valid alternatives.

1 3

How effective do you find the ending of The History Boys?

[20]

This question covers assessment objectives A01 (33%) and A02 (67%).

As with all relatively open questions, there is no set way to approach this question, so be flexible in judging what is offered, and use the guidelines for fine tuning your marking.

- 0 marks            Nothing written, or nothing worthy of credit.
- 1-4 marks        Simple comments and general narrative.
- 5-9 marks        Answers will be dependent on fairly simple narrative, with an awareness and an emerging discussion of the ending of the play, although specific detail may be a bit scant.
- 10-14 marks    Candidates will reveal an increasingly sound knowledge of the ending of the play, used to support a focused and engaged discussion. This will be thoughtful and thorough at the top half of this mark range.
- 15-20 marks    Responses will be confident in their discussion of the ending of the play and will be typified by sensitivity and evaluation for the highest marks. At this level there is likely to be attention paid to a variety of themes, as well as characters, and how effective the ending of the play is in resolving them. In this way the idea of “how effective” will be addressed with increasing assurance.

Please look for, and reward, valid alternatives.

Blood Brothers

1	4
---	---

Read the extract on the opposite page. Then answer the following question:

Look closely at how the characters speak and behave here. How does it create mood and atmosphere for an audience? [10]

This question covers assessment objectives A01 (50%) and A02 (50%).

- 0 marks      Nothing written, or nothing worthy of credit.
- 1 mark        Simple general comments.
- 2-4 marks    Answers will be general, and dependent on relatively simple narrative/reorganisation.
- 5-7 marks    Answers will still be reliant on narrative, but will include highlighting of specific detail. For 7, answers will be thoughtful and thorough. At the top of the mark range stage directions will also be addressed with some success.
- 8-10 marks   Answers will be assured, analytical, with an increasingly clear appreciation of Russell's techniques, such as the use of stage directions. At the top, responses may show an appreciation of the build-up of tension inherent in the extract and how it is created.

1	5
---	---

How is the character of Edward Lyons (Eddie) important to the play as a whole? [20]

This question covers assessment objectives A01 (33%) and A02 (67%).

- 0 marks        Nothing written, or nothing worthy of credit.
- 1-4 marks    Answers will be based on simple, patchy narrative.
- 5-9 marks    Answers will be dependent on fairly simple narrative, with awareness, empathy and some discussion of Eddie emerging at 8/9.
- 10-14 marks Candidates will reveal an increasingly sound and detailed knowledge of the play used to support their discussion of Eddie and how important he is to the play as a whole. For 13/14, responses will be thoughtful and thorough.
- 15-20 marks Responses will be detailed, sensitive, and evaluative in their discussion of Eddie, with increased success in addressing the issue of how important he is to the play as a whole at the top of the band.

Please look for, and reward, valid alternatives.

1 6

How are different kinds of love presented in Blood Brothers?

[20]

This question covers assessment objectives A01 (33%) and A02 (67%).

As with all open questions of this type, please bear in mind that opinion is free, and judge according to the marking guidelines.

- 0 marks            Nothing written, or nothing worthy of credit.
- 1-4 marks        Simple, patchy narrative, at a general level.
- 5-9 marks        Answers will be dependent on fairly simple narrative, with awareness, empathy and some discussion of different kinds of love emerging at 8/9.
- 10-14 marks    Candidates will reveal an increasingly sound knowledge used to support their discussion of different kinds of love as they appear in the play. For 13/14, responses will be thoughtful and thorough in their consideration of different kinds of love throughout the play, although the issue of presentation may still be dealt with implicitly at this level.
- 15-20 marks    Responses will be detailed, sensitive, and evaluative in their consideration of different kinds of love as they appear in the play, and, at the very top, may also be original. How the different kinds of love are presented through Russell's drama will be addressed with increasing success towards the top of the band.

Please look for, and reward, valid alternatives.

A View From The Bridge

'Family is the most important thing to the characters in A View From The Bridge.' To what extent do you agree?

[20]

This question covers assessment objectives A01 (33%) and A02 (67%).

As with all relatively open questions, there is no set way to approach this question, so be flexible in judging what is offered, and use the guidelines for fine tuning your marking.

0 marks	Nothing written, or nothing worthy of credit.
1-4 marks	Simple comments and general narrative, with little real focus on sympathy.
5-9 marks	Answers will be based on narrative, with some awareness of family, perhaps in general terms. Empathy, perhaps, for 8-9.
10-14 marks	Candidates will reveal an increasingly sound and detailed knowledge of the play, used to support their discussion of the importance of family to the characters. For 13/14, responses will be thoughtful and thorough in their consideration of the task, beginning to address the idea of 'to what extent'.
15-20 marks	Responses will be detailed, sensitive, and evaluative in their consideration of the statement. There will be an engaged personal response that addresses the terms of the question directly, perhaps suggesting with some success that other things such as honour, love and obsession are more important to some of the characters.

Please look for, and reward, valid alternatives.

Be My Baby

2 0

Read the extract on the opposite page. Then answer the following question:

Look closely at how the characters speak and behave here. How does it create mood and atmosphere for an audience? [10]

| 1-4 marks   | Answers will be based on patchy, simple and general narrative.   |
| 5-9 marks   | Answers will be based on simple narrative and judgements with some discussion of the spirits and their effect on Scrooge, for 8-9. Attention to context may mostly be implicit at this level.  |
| 10-14 marks | Answers will be more selective and focused, with apt use of detail to support a discussion of how Scrooge changes. At 13-14 discussion will be more thoughtfully developed. Awareness of relevant contextual issues (poverty, welfare, the class system, family life etc.) will be evident.  |
| 15-20 marks | Answers will be sensitive and increasingly evaluative in their discussion of how the spirits (perhaps including Marley) change Scrooge in the novel and will apply relevant points of context to this discussion. There will be an increasingly confident consideration of 'to what extent' the candidate agrees with the statement, particularly towards the top of the mark range. |

Lord of the Flies

3 | 5

Read the extract on the opposite page. Then answer the following question:

Look closely at the character speak and behave here. How does it create mood and atmosphere? [10]

This question covers assessment objectives A01 (50%) and A02 (50%).

- 0 marks Nothing written, or nothing worthy of credit.
- 1 mark Brief responses, with simple comments on what is happening in the extract.
- 2-4 marks Answers will be dependent on reorganisation, with some discussion/awareness, and perhaps, empathy, for 3-4.
- 5-7 marks Candidates will track through the extract selecting and highlighting relevant detail. For 7, discussion of the extract and its perceived mood and atmosphere will be thorough and detailed.
- 8-10 marks Answers will be increasingly assured, evaluative and analytical, with sensitive appreciation of Golding's use of language, particularly at the top of the mark range. There is also likely to be an understanding of the drama and tension of the exchange between the characters in the extract and how this contributes to the creation of mood and atmosphere.

3 | 6

For which character in Lord of the Flies do you have the most sympathy? Show how Golding creates sympathy for your chosen character. Remember to support your answer with reference to the novel and comment on its social, cultural and historical context. [20]

This question covers assessment objectives A01 (33%) and A04 (67%).

As with all relatively open questions, be flexible when judging this question, and consider the level of knowledge and understanding shown when arriving at a mark.

- 0 marks Nothing written, or nothing worthy of credit.
- 1-4 marks Simple comments and general narrative, with little real focus on sympathy.
- 5-9 marks Answers will be based on narrative, with some awareness of sympathy, perhaps in general terms or for a specified character. Empathy, perhaps, for 8-9.
- 10-14 marks Candidates will reveal an increasingly sound and detailed knowledge of the novel, used to support their discussion of their chosen character. For 13/14, responses will be thoughtful and thorough in their consideration of the character and her or his relationships with others throughout the novel, and reasons for sympathy will be addressed with increasing success. There will be some grasp of the novel's context in this band (e.g. social class, power, conflict, and so on).
- 15-20 marks Responses will be detailed, sensitive, and evaluative in their consideration of their chosen character, and, at the very top, may also be original. How the writer creates sympathy for the chosen character will be addressed with increasing success and confidence. This confident discussion will also be embedded in a consideration of the context of the novel, as above.

Ash on a Young Man's Sleeve

3 | 8

Read the extract on the opposite page. Then answer the following question:

How does Dannie Abse create mood and atmosphere here? Refer closely to the extract in your answer. [10]

This question covers assessment objectives A01 (50%) and A02 (50%).

- 0 marks Nothing written, or nothing worthy of credit.
- 1 mark Brief responses, with simple comments on what is happening in the extract.
- 2-4 marks Answers will be dependent on paraphrase to a certain extent, with awareness/empathy for 3-4.
- 5-7 marks Candidates will select and highlight detail in order to support their judgements. For 7, discussion of the extract will be thorough and thoughtful.
- 8-10 marks Answers will be assured, analytical and, at the top of the band, show real appreciation of Abse's creation of mood and atmosphere, such as the humour in the exchanges between the boys here.

3 | 9

How is the character of Leo presented in Ash on a Young Man's Sleeve? Remember to support your answer with reference to the novel and comment on its social, cultural and historical context. [20]

This question covers assessment objectives A01 (33%) and A04 (67%).

- 0 marks Nothing written, or nothing worthy of credit.
- 1-4 marks Answers will be simple and general.
- 5-9 marks Answers will be based on simple, and, probably, patchy narrative, with some discussion of Leo, relevant parts of the book and empathy at 8-9. There will be some awareness of the book's contexts at this level.
- 10-14 marks Answers will reveal a sound knowledge of the text, with apt detail to support discussion of Leo as he appears in it. For 13–14 answers will be thorough and thoughtful, and include an increasing awareness of the contexts of the book.
- 15-20 marks Answers will be increasingly sensitive, evaluative and appreciative in discussing Leo with, perhaps, originality for 18-20, where "how" will be clearly addressed, through overview and well selected detail, set within an understanding of the context of the book.
