SECTION B

3 Read the interpretation and then answer the question that follows:

‘Stolypin’s policies gave the Russian government breathing space, which might have continued if the war had not broken out in 1914.’

Adapted from: H . Rogger, Russia in the Age of Modernisation and Revolution, 1983

Evaluate the strengths and limitations of this interpretation as an explanation of Russia’s stability between 1906 and the outbreak of war in 1914, making reference to other interpretations that you have studied. [20]
