Source A – An announcement in a German newspaper, 16 March 1934

Attention! The Führer will be speaking on the radio. On Wednesday 21 March, the Führer is speaking on all German stations from 11am to 11.50am. The district Party headquarters have ordered that all factory owners, department stores, offices, shops, pubs and blocks of flats put up loudspeakers an hour before the broadcast of the Führer's speech so that the whole workforce and all national comrades can participate fully in the broadcast.

7. How useful are Interpretation B and Sources C and D for a historian studying the growth of Hitler Youth organisations between 1932 and 1939? In your answer, refer to the interpretation and the two sources as well as your own knowledge.

Interpretation B – From The Third Reich in Power by Richard J Evans, 2006

From July 1936 the Hitler Youth had an official monopoly on the provision of sports facilities and activities for all children below the age of fourteen; before long, it was the same for 14–18 year olds. In effect, sports facilities were no longer available to non-members. Hitler Youth members were given special days off school for their activities. The results of such pressure soon became apparent. By the end of 1933 there were 2.3 million boys and girls between the ages of ten and eighteen in the Hitler Youth organisation. By the end of 1935 this figure was approaching four million, and by the beginning of 1939 it had reached 8.7 million.

Source C – Graph showing membership numbers of the Hitler Youth organisations, 1932–1939

Source D – Poster published by the Nazi government in Germany, 1938

The words on the poster mean: "Build youth hostels and homes".

Answer either question 8 or question 9.

8.* “There was little effective opposition to the Nazis”. How far do you agree with this view of Germany between 1933 and 1945?

[18]

9.* “German occupation in the Second World War was, in general, far harsher in eastern Europe than in western Europe”. How far do you agree with this view?
