INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

Use black ink or black ball-point pen. Do not use gel pen or correction fluid.

Write your name, centre number and candidate number in the spaces at the top of this page.

Answer all questions on the examination paper.

Write your answers in the spaces provided in this booklet. Additional space is provided for Question 5 within the booklet (if required). If further space is required for any question, use the additional page(s) at the back of the booklet, taking care to number the question(s) correctly.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

The number of marks is given in brackets at the end of each question.

Question 5 will assess your ability to construct a balanced, reasoned and well-substantiated extended response.

In addition your answer to Question 5 will assess your ability to spell, punctuate and use grammar accurately and use a wide range of specialist terms as appropriate.

Answer all questions.

QUESTION 1

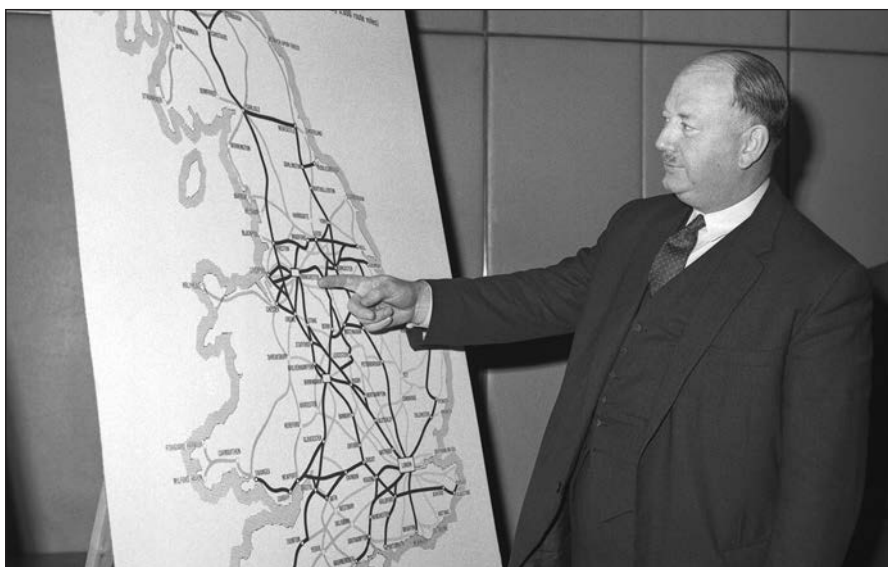

Study the sources below and then answer the question which follows.

Source A

Use of the railways is so low over much of the system that the revenue gained from passengers and freight over more than half the track miles of British Railways does not cover the maintenance costs of the track and signals, let alone the costs of running trains, depots and stations. Passenger services are exceptionally poor and are the main reason for the small and uneconomic stations.

[Dr Richard Beeching, writing in his report entitled The Reshaping of British Railways, published in 1963]
