QUESTION 1

Study the sources below and then answer the question which follows.

Source A

In all parish churches the minister must face the people and clearly read the service. When children are baptised, the marking of the Cross on the child's forehead should not be done as this is superstition. Ministers should wear a loose white linen tunic, or surplice, when saying Divine Service. Organs should be removed from churches.

[An extract from Puritan demands made to the Church of England assembly, 1563]

Source B

Since your departure from Norwich the preachers of the city have started prophesying, which is done every three weeks for the education of the people. One first interprets a piece of the Bible for an hour and then two others reply for an hour each. Then we end with prayer. None has any knowledge of Latin.

[An extract from a letter written by Edward Gaston to a Mr Haddon, 1564]

what can be learnt from Sources A and B about the Puritan movement during this period? [4]

QUESTION 2
Study the source below and then answer the question which follows.
Source C
Elizabeth, the pretended Queen of England, the servant of wickedness, having seized the crown and made herself supreme head of the church, has reduced England to miserable ruin. We declare Elizabeth to be a heretic and she is to be deprived of her pretended title. We command all nobles and subjects not to obey her laws. Those who do shall also be excommunicated.
[An extract from Regnans in Excelsis, the Papal Bull of Excommunication, issued in 1570]
To what extent does this source accurately reflect the seriousness of the Catholic threat? [8]
[In your answer you should refer to the strengths and limitations of the source and use your own knowledge and understanding of the historical context.]

Read the interpretation below and then answer the question which follows.

The worst mistake was committed after the death of the Marquess of Santa Cruz, the best naval commander that Spain possessed. Philip appointed the Duke of Medina Sidonia to succeed him. The Duke expressed his lack of experience in naval matters, but the King insisted, so the Duke loyally attempted the impossible. In good faith he made disastrous errors of leadership. This was the main reason for the failure of the Armada.

[An extract from an article on the Spanish Armada, published on Catholic Online [catholic.org], an encyclopaedia website.]

How far do you agree with this interpretation of why the Spanish Armada failed to achieve its objectives?	[16]
[In your answer you should refer to how and why interpretations of this issue differ. Use your own knowledge and understanding of the wider historical debate over this issue to reach a well-supported judgement.]
Marks for spelling, punctuation and the accurate use of grammar and specialist terms are allocated to this question.	ated [3]
