INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

The number of marks is given in brackets at the end of each question or part-question.

Question 5 will assess your ability to construct a balanced, reasoned and well-substantiated extended narrative response.

In addition, your answer to Question 5 will assess your ability to spell, punctuate and use grammar accurately and use a wide range of specialist terms as appropriate.

The sources used in this examination paper may have been amended, adapted or abridged from the stated published work in order to make the wording more accessible.

The sources may include words that are no longer in common use and are now regarded as derogatory terminology. Their inclusion reflects the time and place of the original version of these sources.

QUESTION 2

Study Sources D and E below and answer the question which follows.

Source D

Cicely Ormes was burned on 23 September 1557. Two sheriffs were there, and about two hundred people. When she came to the stake, she kneeled down and made her prayers to God. She rose up and said, "Good people, I believe what I have been taught from the Bible. I will never change from it."

[From The Book of Martyrs by Protestant writer John Foxe, published in 1563]

Source E

A teenage boy has denied using his phone to hack information from two companies to hold them to ransom. He was arrested last week following an investigation by the National Crime Agency, and today appeared in a London youth court. Police have not disclosed which businesses were allegedly targeted.

[From the report 'Oxfordshire teen denies hacking companies for ransom' published on news.bbc.co.uk in September 2022]

Which of the two sources is the more reliable to an historian studying the causes of crime over time?

[In your answer you should refer to the content and authorship of the sources and use your own knowledge and understanding of the wider historical context.]
