QUESTION 2

Study Sources D and E below and answer the question which follows.

Source D

[A cartoon entitled Blind Man's Buff showing the inability of the police to catch Jack the Ripper. It was published in the satirical magazine Punch in September 1888]

Source E

> Police officers have been largely ineffective, continually chasing their tails to keep up with criminals. Successive governments have failed to put more police where it matters. Civilians should be doing paperwork to allow the police to go where they are needed – on the streets.

[From a letter written by a retired police officer published in an article in the Daily Mail newspaper in September 2018]

Which of the two sources is the more reliable to an historian studying methods of combating crime over time?                                                                                     [6]

[In your answer you should refer to the content and authorship of the sources and use your own knowledge and understanding of the wider historical context.]
