QUESTION 4

This question is about the ending of the apartheid system.

Study the sources below and then answer the question which follows.

Source C

Despite the admitted commitment of President de Klerk to support us, and despite our acceptance of his honesty, we would be fools to believe that the road ahead of us is without major hurdles. So many white South Africans are too filled with racist ideology to admit that change must come.

[Nelson Mandela, in a speech to the US Congress, June 1990]

Source D

There is no way that the international community ever would, or ever could, accept a state based once again on minority racial domination and racial discrimination. There can be no return to apartheid. And any effort in that direction will end in conflict, total isolation and utter and complete economic ruin.

[President de Klerk in a pre-election State of the Nation address, February 1994]

Which of the sources is more useful to an historian studying the end of apartheid in South Africa?

[12]

[You should refer to both sources in your answer and use your own knowledge and understanding of the historical context.]
