Q2.

Daniel and Matthew are in the same class at school but have very different views on success. Daniel is convinced that success is due to hard work and determination, whilst Matthew believes that luck and fate determine success.

The class is putting on a play and neither Daniel nor Matthew wants to participate. Their friends are trying to persuade them to take part.

- (a) Using your knowledge of locus of control, identify which boy is most likely to resist the social influence of his friends. Explain why.

(4)

- (b) Another boy in the class, Tom, refuses to take part in the play.

Explain how Tom's refusal to take part might affect Daniel's and Matthew's ability to resist social influence.

Q3.

Three students, George, Petra and Dan, have just started in the sixth form. Dan is a confident person who thinks that his fate lies firmly in his hands. By the end of the first week, Dan has put himself forward to be nominated as the class representative. Petra has also put her name forward to be nominated. She believes it is just luck whether or not she will be selected and feels that there is not much she can do about it. George did not put his name forward because his father told him not to.

- (a) (i) What type of locus of control does Petra's behaviour show?

- (ii) What type of locus of control does Dan's behaviour show?

- (iii) George did not put his name forward as the class representative. Use your knowledge of social influence research to explain this.

(4)

- (b) Which one of the three students is most likely to resist pressures to conform? Use your knowledge of psychology to explain your choice.

Q5.

Read the item and then answer the question that follows.

Two psychology students were discussing the topic of social influence.

'I find it fascinating how some people are able to resist social influence', said Jack.

'It must be the result of having a confident personality.'

'I disagree', replied Sarah. 'I think resisting social influence depends much more on the presence of others.'

Discuss two explanations of resistance to social influence. As part of your discussion, refer to the views expressed by Jack and Sarah in the conversation above.
