

GCSE MARKING SCHEME

AUTUMN 2019

ENGLISH LANGUAGE - UNIT 3
3700U30-1

INTRODUCTION

This marking scheme was used by WJEC for the 2019 examination. It was finalised after detailed discussion at examiners' conferences by all the examiners involved in the assessment. The conference was held shortly after the paper was taken so that reference could be made to the full range of candidates' responses, with photocopied scripts forming the basis of discussion. The aim of the conference was to ensure that the marking scheme was interpreted and applied in the same way by all examiners.

It is hoped that this information will be of assistance to centres but it is recognised at the same time that, without the benefit of participation in the examiners' conference, teachers may have different views on certain matters of detail or interpretation.

WJEC regrets that it cannot enter into any discussion or correspondence about this marking scheme.

6. List two natural features that can be enjoyed during an outdoor swim. [1]

This question tests the ability to use deduction skills to retrieve information and to refer to evidence within texts.

Award one mark for any two of the following:

Sparkling clear lakes picturesque rivers
waterfalls
bends in small rivers

7. What is meant by the writer when she refers to a 'secluded location'? [1]

This question tests the ability to interpret meaning and ideas in challenging writing.

Award one mark for the correct answer:

A place that is quiet and isolated
A place that is in the countryside
A place that is beautiful and picturesque
A place that is easy to find

8. In your own words, summarise why Gabby Dickinson enjoys wild swimming. [5]

This question tests the ability to summarise information.

Award one mark for each of the following areas summarised in the candidate's own words, to a maximum of five.

- Enjoys the outdoors/nature/invigoration of nature
- it is good for the body

This question tests the ability to interpret meaning and ideas.

Award one mark for the correct answer:

Time when you are active

Time when you are bored

Time when you are dynamic

Time when you are inactive

10. How does Text D try to persuade the reader that swimming is good for everyone? [8]

This question tests the ability to use inference and deduction skills to retrieve and analyse information from written texts and reflect on the ways in which texts may be interpreted.

Give 0 marks for responses where there is nothing worthy of credit.

Give 1-2 marks to those who identify and begin to comment on some examples of content that are persuasive. These responses may struggle to engage with the text and/or the question.

Give 3-4 marks to those who identify and give straightforward comments on some different examples of persuasive content. These responses may simply identify facts and/or evidence.

Give 5-6 marks to those who clearly explain how a number of different examples from the text persuade, and begin to analyse how language and techniques are used to achieve effects and influence the reader. Carefully selected examples will support comments effectively.

Give 7-8 marks to those who make carefully considered comments about how a range of different examples from the text persuade. Analysis of how language and techniques are used to achieve effects and influence the reader will be evident. Well-considered, accurate use of linguistic terminology will support comments effectively.

Candidates may comment on the following:

- Benefits bones and muscles in supported environment
- Tells us that it benefits those with arthritis
- Health benefits for those with blood pressure etc. (many specific health benefits)
- Dispels common myths, 'don't be fooled...' your body is working hard
- Rhetorical question 'who wouldn't want a swimmer's body?' - desirable
- Compares it to other forms of exercise – swimming uses more muscles/cardio
- Lists areas of body which swimming targets/helps
- Talks about benefits on life span and life quality
- Talks about positive impact on mood and mental health
- It is cheap
- It is fun
- Gives advice on how to swim 'start slowly'
- Understands reservations people may have and tries to resolve these

Other methods

- Upbeat lively tone while maintaining specific terminology/language
- Use of imperatives
- Factual style/very informative but appealing to reader

Reward valid alternatives.

TEXT E

11. What do you learn about the writer before she takes up swimming? [5]

This question tests the ability to interpret meaning and ideas in challenging writing and understand and recognise the reliability of texts.

Award one mark for each area covered to a maximum of 5 marks:

- Lives in south of England with husband and children
- She's very busy... 'juggling working as a teacher, being a mum and studying at college'
- Her life falls apart 'broke down', 'crying', 'wanted to run away'
- Moves in with mother-in-law to protect the children
- She 'felt terrible', it is difficult, she is 'depressed'
- She started seeing a therapist

12. Explain what the writer means when she tells us that she 'felt the black cloud ebbing away'. [1]

This question tests the ability to interpret meaning and ideas in challenging writing.

Award one mark for an explanation that explores the following:

- The black cloud is a metaphor for her depressed state of mind – she feels like the darkness/shadows/depression/gloom is retreating and leaving her/going away.
- She feels like she is moving into a more positive place mentally

13. Look at Text D and Text E. Synthesise the benefits of swimming using information taken from these two texts. [10]

This question tests the ability to synthesise information effectively from more than one text.

Give 0 marks for responses where there is nothing worthy of credit.

Give 1-2 marks to those who identify and begin to comment on some examples of the benefits of swimming.

Give 3-4 marks to those who identify and give straightforward comments on some examples of the benefits of swimming.

Give 5-6 marks to those who explain how a number of different examples present some range of benefits and show some understanding of implicit meaning in the text.

Give 7-8 marks to those who make accurate comments about how a range of different examples from both texts present the benefits of swimming. The answer will begin to collate details effectively.

Give 9-10 marks to those who make accurate and perceptive comments about how a wide range of different examples from both texts present the benefits of swimming. Well-considered, confident collation skills will be evident.

Some areas candidates may wish to explore:

Text D

- Good for arthritis/illnesses/ailments
- The whole body is working hard/exercise/good for bones and muscles
