Answer all questions.

QUESTION 1

Look at Sources A, B and C which show changes in children's entertainment over time and answer the question which follows.

Source A

[Children playing in the early 17th century]

Source B

[Children playing in the 19th century]

QUESTION 2

Study Sources D and E below and answer the question which follows.

Source D

The purpose of music is to soften and purify the mind. It helps the honest working man to relax from his labours and to live decently. It encourages him to avoid temptation, vice and drink.

[From the War Cry, a magazine produced in 1884 by the Salvation Army, a Christian organisation]

Source E

The music of the Beatles encourages freedom and expression. Youngsters are encouraged to rebel and “push the limits”. They challenge their parents, they challenge society, they challenge everything.

[From an article published in 1963 in the Mersey Beat, a magazine produced in Liverpool and aimed at young people]

Which of the two sources is the more reliable to an historian studying changes in musical tastes over time? [6]

[In your answer you should refer to the content and authorship of the sources and use your own knowledge and understanding of the wider historical context.]
